Factors influencing tuition fees include:

- Year of study (initial vs. final year may differ)

- Availability of scholarships or sponsorships

Registration and Admission Fees

New students are required to pay an admission or registration fee upon enrollment, usually amounting to approximately KSh 5,000 to KSh 10,000. This fee secures the student's place and covers administrative costs.

Students may incur additional costs for:

- Examination fees, often integrated into tuition but sometimes charged separately (~KSh 10,000 per semester)
- Purchase of textbooks, online resources, or supplementary materials (~KSh 10,000 ? KSh 30,000 annually)

Cost-Benefit Analysis

Investing in a degree in accountancy at Kenya Poly involves significant financial commitment. However, considering the high demand for accounting professionals in Kenya and the East African region, graduates often see a swift return on investment through employment opportunities and earning potential.

Key points in evaluating the fee statement include:

- The total cost over the duration of the program (typically 3-4 years)
- The quality and recognition of the qualification
